ANNOUNCING VIRGINIA'S ON KING
The Creators of 39 Rue de Jean, Coast and Good Food Catering Bring You
Southern Cooking, Lowcountry Style

Friday, December 14, 2007 – CHARLESTON, SC – 412 King Street, former location of the Bookstore Café, is now home to Virginia's on King. The upscale dining spot is a collection of family recipes and Southern cooking traditions. The menu incorporates fresh, local ingredients into familiar Lowcountry dishes.

At the heart of Virginia's is truly Southern cooking and gracious Charleston hospitality. "We want to provide our guests, both locals and visitors to the Lowcountry, with a truly Southern experience appealing to all of the senses," says Daren Wolfe, Operating Partner of the Holy City Hospitality restaurant group. Virginia's on King is the most recent addition to the group, which encompasses 39 Rue de Jean, Coast and Good Food Catering.

Virginia's serves lunch, supper and Sunday brunch; opening at 11am Monday through Saturday, Supper begins at 3pm. Virginia's Sunday Brunch is served between 10am and 3 pm. Reservations can be made by calling 843.735.5800.

Holy City Hospitality brings inventive combinations of the freshest, seasonal ingredients together with thoughtful, accommodating service to inspire memorable experiences.
Our philosophy is simply consistent hospitality, from the kitchen to the table.
