

Eve Gray
Catering Sales Manager

Eve Gray was born and raised in North Carolina. After visiting Charleston, she fell in love the city a decided to relocate in 2003. With a degree in Marketing and Business Administration, she began her career in the hospitality industry.

Within a few short years of her living and working in Charleston, she quickly realized that the event industry was her true passion.

Having worked for rental companies, planners and other catering companies, she brings an extensive knowledge and background in the event industry. Eve was excited to join Holy City Hospitality in the spring of 2014 as a Catering Manager at the Historic Rice Mill and Good Food Catering.

Eve brings a passion for planning, creativity and a love for food to the Good Food team. She is dedicated to providing an organized and personalized approach to every event.