VIRGINIA'S

ON KING

STORY

Our inspiration for this restaurant came from Warren J. and Virginia Bennett. Warren J. was known to most as “Red” for he had the true look of an Irishman. He and Virginia were both 17 when they were married in 1939. As natives to Charleston, Red and Virginia were raised with the customs of the South. Mrs. Bennett will tell you, as any true Southerner would agree, that food and family are the threads that bind the traditions of the South.

Virginia brought up a family of her own, raising four boys and two girls. For years, the Bennetts went to church on Sunday, and then came home to Sunday Family Dinner. Traditionally, Southern families joined together in the afternoon for good company, conversation, and the familiar dishes prepared from family recipes, collected and passed down through the years

Virginia’s children grew older, and soon had children of their own. As their lives grew to be busier, it became difficult to carry on the longtime Sunday tradition. Nevertheless, Red wanted to keep the children close. Thus began Thursday Family Dinner, where the Bennett family gathers each week at noon. Coming together during the week allowed most everyone to join.

The first Thursday Family Dinner was in 1983. Red passed away just a few years later. For years, Virginia kept the tradition alive in memory of him. She still prepared the home cooked Southern fare that graced the dinner table of the Bennett household.

Virginia’s home is no longer a host to only her children, but to friends and family as well and now, to you. Mrs. Bennett passed away in 2019, but her memory lives on in so many ways.

Through her hospitality, her love of friends and family, and her love of gathering together to celebrate and connect over a delicious Southern meal.
